Grallspice
Meeting on 25 July 1952

Contact Report No. 17

1. This was a very short meeting devoted primarily to an attempt on the part of □ □ to bolster Grallspice's morale which was fairly low because he had not as yet received a letter from his wife in Germany. Grallspice complained that he thought the present system was taking unnecessarily long and felt that it should be possible to establish some better arrangement.
□ □ sympathized and agreed with Grallspice and stated that he would look into the matter in an attempt to speed up the exchange of letters.

2. Grallspice said that he had visited Lt. Davis on 24 July, but that Lt. Davis had not been in his office. Grallspice intended to contact Lt. Davis again within a few days.

3. □ □ advanced Grallspice 1,000 schillings for expenses and a receipt for the amount was obtained.

4. The next meeting was arranged for 29 July at 1400 hours.
□ □ left the operational apartment at 1600 hours.
